

Agenda for the Seminar on “Court Warrant as a Procedural Requirement for Conducting Dawn Raids”
Ljubljana, 13 May 2014
Venue: Hotel Slon

The purpose of this seminar is based on recognizing that competition authorities are organized in various ways and that they operate under different legal systems, therefore it would be useful to compare the diversity of approaches and what the processes and practices are to conduct dawn raids in the most effective and efficient manner.

8:00 - 8:30 Registration

8:30 - 9:00 Welcoming addresses

Mr. Andrej Krašek, Director of CPA, Slovenia

Mr. David Burger, Deputy Chief of Mission, U.S. Embassy in Slovenia

Moderator: Mr. Andrej Krašek, Director of CPA, Slovenia

9:00 - 9:20 Introduction of the Constitutional Court Decision and amendments to the Slovenian Competition Law

Mr. Marko Stoilovski LL.M. - Slovenian Competition Protection Agency

9:20 - 9:40 The comparison with the Criminal Procedure Act and the Courts practice in Slovenia

Mr. Luka Moljk, District State Prosecutor - Specialized Office of the State Prosecutor of the Republic of Slovenia

9:40 - 10:00 Conducting inspections and recent Court Decisions in Austria

Ms. Natalie Harsdorf LL.M. - Austrian Federal Competition Authority

10:00-10:30 Conducting inspections and Court Decisions in Hungary

Mr. Ádám Remetei-Filep - Hungarian Competition Authority

(Coffee Break 10:30 - 11:00 am)

11:00 - 11:30 Conducting inspections and practice of the European Commission

Mr. Blaž Višnar - EC

11:30 - 12:00 Obtaining evidence - practice of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission - Mr. Andrew Heimert - FTC

12:00-12:30 Open Discussion

12:30-12:45 Closing remarks and end of session

(Lunch 13:00 - 14:00)